The Muse Creative and Muse Design Awards are international competitions for creative and design professionals from all disciplines, who help push the evolution of their industry in a positive direction. "We recognize the breakthrough achievements of these true innovators, who live by the words, 'make the world a better place for all'" said Kenjo Ong, CEO of both competitions. "They have earned this recognition."

Both the Muse Creative and Muse Design Awards are administered and judged by International Awards Associates (IAA), and stellar panels of internationally-recognized professionals from both fields. IAA oversees awards and recognition programs, assembles judging panels, and sets rigorous standards for both competitions.
